

You are invited to the 4th Annual Conference of:

“Feminist Scholarship, Activism and Creativity”

25th-26th November 2011 – University of Limerick.

Friday 25th November

Please Note Change of Venue

Conference Launch and Welcome Event:

7.00 p.m Dr. Cinta Ramblado Minero (UL) discusses

“Politics of Morality and the Morality of Politics: Women, confinement and social control in Ireland and Spain”.

7.45 p.m Bearing Witness: A reading from the oral histories of Limerick’s Magdalene Laundry.

Interactive art exhibition by Evelyn Glynn
(LSAD)

“The striking thing about the Magdalen story is that its resurrection owes more to art than to politics or journalism”- Fintan O’Toole on Glynn’s work (The Irish Times 26-10-11).

8.30p.m: Food and drinks.

Performance by Limerick musician,
Hannah O’Brien.

(FB-028, Basement floor of the University Concert Hall Building, UL)

Saturday 26th November

Conference:

9 a.m. – 5.30 p.m

Line-up includes:

Opening Address by Dr. Breda Gray (UL)

- “Feminism in Action”- A workshop by feminist activist groups, Cork Feminista and the Irish Feminist Network.

- “Sharing the Tool Kit of the Campaign for Marriage Equality in Ireland”- An activist workshop by Gráinne Healy (DCU and Chairperson of Marriage Equality Ireland).

Panels include:

- “Women in History and Politics”

- “Gender Politics and The Media”

- “Marginalised, Extra-ordinary and Constrained Irish Motherhoods”

- “Critical Engagement with the ‘Masculine’ and the ‘Feminine’ ”

(Main Building, C1-Corridor, UL.)

Please RSVP to sibeal@ul.ie by 23rd Nov. for conference launch on Friday. Free to attend. Registration required for conference on Saturday. Deadline 11th Nov. Download form on www.sibeal.ie. Conference registration fee of €10 due on day. Lunch and refreshments included. For any enquiries, please email sibeal@ul.ie

